

About FIDA

FIDA is a Global Financial Data Analysis company, headquartered in Turin, Italy. It is among the leaders in Italy in analyzing, collecting and distributing information on financial products and financial markets. It has a long time experience in financial research, software suites and database management.

FIDAmind is the FIDA division where take place all group activities related to R&D and training:

- Financial research in connection with Universities
- Applied Research for company projects
- Internship management, thesis development support, teaching contributes and post-graduate courses

Internship Proposal

FIDA recruits International students in all European Universities in finance and marketing areas to join FIDAmind team.

Duration: 6 months

Hours: Full time

Location of Stage: Corso Duca Degli Abruzzi 65, 10129, Turin, Italy.

*Internship can be applied as "Erasmus internship"

Financial Internship

Description of activity:

- Financial markets and securities analysis for trading and investing strategies
- Analysis and evaluation of financial products
- Financial algorithms application and development
- Collecting, categorizing and classifying financial data
- International relations developing

Doc.v013-20150526

Preferential requirements:

- Students in European Universities in areas of Economics, Financial Markets, Corporate Finance, Quantitative Finance, Insurance, Bank and Stock market...
- Knowledge of financial markets and products
- Advanced knowledge in English language
- Advanced computer skills.

Internship Application

Interested candidates can send Curriculum Vitae and motivation letter to the email address fidamind@fidaonline.com with the subject "Curricular internship financial analysis" or "Curricular internship Finance".

Proposal for internship and thesis on www.facebook.com / FIDAmind